Terms and Conditions

- By signing this application form you are committing to raise a minimum of £250 for the charity (excluding Gift Aid) by 30 days after the date of the event.
- Your ticket price can only be refunded in the case of the event being cancelled by the official race coordinators. If you drop out for any reason your deposit is non-refundable and it cannot be rolled over.
- The Joseph Foote Trust does not take responsibility for any health issues during your training for the Great Edinburgh Run or any incidents that occur on race day. If you have any health concerns prior to, or during, your training please consult with a health professional.
- The Joseph Foote Trust reserves the right to refuse an application at its absolute discretion.
- You must be 18 years or over on the day of the race.
- If you are unable to participate in the event for any reason, all donated monies collected in support of The Joseph Foote Trust must be forwarded to the charity or returned to the individual sponsors. Monies already received by the charity will not be refunded.
- In the event that you feel you will no longer be able to participate, you must contact The Joseph Foote Trust immediately.
- By signing up to fundraise for The Joseph Foote Trust you are consenting to the charity using any images of you in their promotional materials. Please contact us as soon as possible if you are unhappy with this arrangement.
- If you fail to return any race day equipment to the event organisers on the day (i.e. race timing chip) the cost will automatically be transferred to you.

Your pledge:

I have read and understood the terms and conditions above and would like to apply for a place to run at The Great Edinburgh Run in 2012.
